

We are delighted to announce that John Mellor of Queensland. When John & his family moved to the Northern Territory to minister to the Aboriginal people, he saw how much they relied on their own witch doctors and knew that without revealing the true power of God, Jesus was just a nice story to them. He fasted for 10 days a month for 5 months, crying out to God to reveal himself. It wasn't long before miracles began to happen. John continues to see God heal all kinds of conditions even today. See Page 2 for his itinerary.

DECEMBER 2010

From the Desk of Reg: The Miracles of Christmas

Dear Friends,
 Mathew Cht 1 speaks of Christ's genealogy and in his lineage we find sinners are included. How wonderful that we have come to the end of the year to celebrate Christmas. On this major event as the world rejoices, we as Christians rejoice about the miracle of grace. He has reconciled all sinners through the Cross of Calvary. Secondly on this profound day Christ was born to a virgin- it was only a sheer miracle of God that there was no human intervention in this, but God and God alone brought Jesus onto this earth. This day signifies and gives us a hope that a miracle can always take place in any person's life. Thirdly all those words which were spoken prophetically thousands of years ago by different prophets and ministers has finally come true. Scripture tells us all of His promises are Yea and Amen! This is the miracle of God's word being fulfilled in flesh. Around about this time we ponder and we wonder how fast 2010 has gone and as we gaze into the following year we ask ourselves, "what can we do to share this love of God to the people who are still being hurt in the society that we live in?" Lastly, the angels who predicted the arrival of this Messiah also protected him in every possible way to bring an end or a crushing blow to the powers of the evil one. I call this the miracle of guidance. Out of Matthew Cht 1, grace, the miracle of God, God's word being fulfilled and His guidance should be the main celebration of this festive season. I wish you all a wonderful Christmas and blessed new year.

Celebrating birthdays in religious circles can sometimes be a bit controversial! In some religions birthdays are to be shunned, due to the fact that they draw too much attention to the individual and could perhaps build them up from an ego point of view and be too self-centred and self-focused. Some are happy to simply celebrate the milestone ones and other religions leave it to individuals as to if/how they choose to celebrate birthdays.

In our immediate family, we celebrated five birthdays in the month of November! And now we have to get ready for another big birthday bash—Christmas— the day we celebrate the birth of our Saviour.

It's a lovely tradition that many of us have of getting together with family and close friends whereby we often exchange gifts and eat heaps! How did we get here and was this the original intention of Jesus Christ?

Obviously that is a HUGE question that can't be answered in a short column like this. So let's briefly look at what Jesus did ask us to celebrate with him.

From the moment God chooses Israel to set the standard for living, God teaches them about celebrations (Exodus 12 & 23).

Jesus also asked us to remember the Passover and to celebrate His death and resurrection which we do when we take communion. In Matt 26:18 Jesus actually says he is going to celebrate his final Passover with his disciples.

Whenever one sinner on earth repents, there is great joy in heaven, a celebration takes place with the angels. (Luke 15:10). What an incredible sight and moment that must be! So we definitely know that God loves to celebrate with us and through us.

As we approach this season of pausing to celebrate the birth of our Christ, what are some of the ways you will you celebrate for and with the Lord this Christmas? Truly He is the reason for the season!

May God bless you as you travel and bring reconciliation to families that are in need of that at this time.

Until next time,

Leanne.
